The Mission of the

To perform great symphonic music at the highest level of artistic excellence to educate, entertain, and enhance cultural life.

To present engaging music education programs for young people to foster early interest in and inspire lifelong enjoyment of music.

To achieve ever-greater levels of artistic accomplishment and leadership in Fort Worth and across the nation.

Chairman of the Board Mercedes T. Bass

Dear Patrons and Supporters of the FWSO,

It is my great honor to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, and I am thrilled to have the privilege of leading this magnificent organization that is very close to my heart.

Under the dynamic leadership of our Music Director, Miguel Harth-Bedoya, the FWSO has become one of Fort Worth's cultural treasures bringing the joy of music to audiences of nearly 200,000 this year. Since Miguel's arrival nearly two decades ago, the FWSO has been transformed into one of the finest ensembles in the country. Our brilliant musicians never cease to amaze me with their infinite talent and their never-ending pursuit of musical excellence. We are truly fortunate that our city is home to such an incredible orchestra.

With this season also came the appointment of the FWSO's new President and CEO, Keith Cerny, Ph.D. Dr. Cerny comes to the FWSO with a wealth of experience, and is a proven leader. We all look forward to this new chapter under Dr. Cerny's leadership.

I want to thank you all for the overwhelming generosity you have bestowed upon this organization. Your loyal support reflects a huge commitment to our orchestra which is thriving and growing. I look forward to sharing many exciting seasons of world-class music with you as we all join together under the leadership of our new President and CEO, Keith Cerny and his entire team.

Despite our humble beginnings, there is one truth that has remained unchanged throughout our history—it takes the combined support of many to sustain a great orchestra for our community. Thank you for playing a significant part in both our inspiring past and our promising future!

Warmest regards,

Mercedes T. Bass
Chairman of the Board of Directors

President and CEO Keith Cerny

Dear Friends,

Since joining the FWSO in January of the 2018-19 season, I have worked with the Board, staff, and musicians to develop a new strategy for the orchestra. We've focused on driving financial and operational efficiency while maximizing FWSO's artistic and community impact in Fort Worth and neighboring areas. These changes have enabled us to elevate our artistic product, while also improving our efficiency and strengthening our financial performance. This strategy, which is intended to strengthen FWSO's financial position, will continue to be implemented in future seasons, with the new strategy taking full effect in 2020-21.

The Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra will soon approach an exciting artistic transition in its long and successful history. The upcoming season will mark twenty distinguished years of Miguel Harth-Bedoya's tenure as music director, after which he will transition to Music Director Laureate in June 2020.

The future is bright at the FWSO, and I am delighted to be a part of its progress. The exceptional artistry of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra would not be possible without each of our loyal patrons, and we are grateful for your support as we continue to extend the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra's musical contributions to our devoted community and beyond. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Keith Cerny, Ph.D.
President and CEO

Bernstein Festival Review

"In a compact intermission-less concert, FWSO music director Miguel Harth-Bedoya got genuinely compelling performances, start to finish. The orchestra sounded fabulous, with Kelley O'Connor an ardent soloist in the symphony."

- The Dallas Morning News

Tchaikovsky/Ehnes

"The excellent violinist James Ehnes was the soloist in the Violin Concerto, supplying great delicacy where called for, great drama elsewhere, effortlessly tossing off the most fearsome technical challenges. Harth-Bedoya and the orchestra were the most attentive and responsive partners, with dynamics and balances flawlessly gauged."

- The Dallas Morning News

Spano/Mahler Review

"In Saturday's performance, Spano got some of the finest playing I've heard from the Fort Worth orchestra — strings precise and responsive, brasses dazzling in bright array..."

- The Dallas Morning News

Byron Stripling – Ragtime, Blues, and all that Jazz

"The FWSO plays the role of a studio orchestra—providing a rich, solid background and colorful support for Stripling and Floyd, and they do it well. Their command over the material is solid and their ability to follow the organic flow of Stripling's interpretations demonstrates polished musicianship."

- Theater Jones
